letter a leader

crazy how nobody tells you that true leadership is a battle

against your greatest demons

a ght

against those voices that say i am not good enough or i will never make it

a journey

that breaks you down in just the right places

joy
a smile
a sunrise
a warm embrace

all of which will become foreign
if you become addicted

to your own sadness

NOVEMBER 27, 2021 @11:34

disillusionment pt two with all of the anguish suffering & sorrow
in this world

the flag should always be half-mast

dolente
when you over flow
it will be with whatever is already inside of you

synthesis
like a compass with no direction or a map that leads to nowhere the message is simple if you do not choose yourself

you will lose yourself

now, scramble to gather the fragmented pieces of your broken mirror if you hurry, then perhaps you will still see

your reflection
